Bayside's Marlin Memories

Bayside HIgh School has found a special place in all our hearts. One may deny it, but it has become like a second home to each and every one of us. Once we are gone and graduated, memories of the times we walked through these halls, the gross -but decent- cafeteria meals, the friendly teachers, and all the friends we have made will all linger in our minds. These high school years are the ones we will all remember forever.

Try to remember back to the first day of school...You didn't want to go. It was as if your bed was screaming your name for you to come back. Now that the final days are approaching, it's exciting, but you dont want to go. Now it's the classrooms, lockers, and all the friends being left behind screaming for you to come back. The real world is out there and we are all on our way; ready or not! Let's go class of 2002!!!

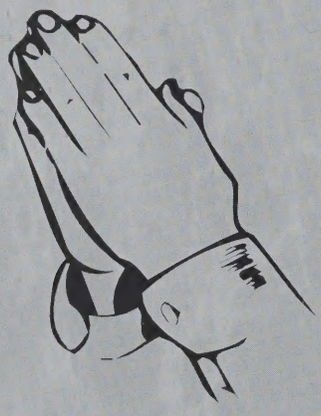
Voices Of Expression (VOE)



Mission

The mission is to bring together a diverse group of individuals to meet a common goal to uphold spiritual and moral standards that allow individuals to share and to express their own ethnicity through the medium of gospel music.

The mission is accomplished by:

providing the necessary academic support system for our members; thus far, VOE has had a 100% graduation rate, with most of the members becoming employed or pursuing higher education after high school;

empowerment of spiritual awareness of each member by visiting various community places of worship and participating in community activities;

accepting all members regardless of economic/social background, which has armed them with the ability to not only recognize, but to act take measures to assist those less fortunate than themselves.

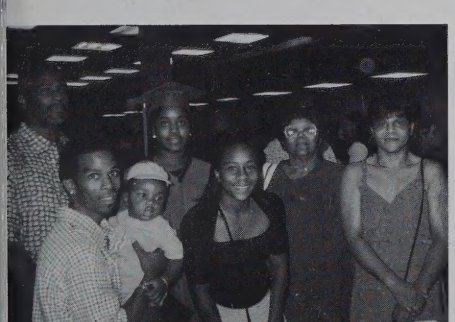
Doesn't Seem

These days don't seem quite the same .
The morning doesn't seem to bring a better day.
The stars just don't seem to shine as bright.
It just doesn't seem to me that the days and weeks help this lonely heart.

So when does the pain end and when does the healing begin.
It doesn't seem the lost will ever feel easier to deal with.
It doesn't seem happiness will ever come my way.
When I think about the part of my life that was taken away, it doesn't seem like I will be able to make things right for you or me.
Doesn't seem that I'll make my way through the darkness of life.
It doesn't seem I can find the fire that puts the desire in my heart to come back into life.
Doesn't seem that things will ever feel the same.
I guess we will have to go on without our little sister and daughter to share the rest of our lives with.
Cause it doesn't seem I can turn back the hands of time.
So I guess this life I'm living is all mine.
I t doesn't seem like I can say goodbye and I love you.
To be honest baby sis/daughter we're lost without you.
But it doesn't seem we'll ever get you back.
It doesn't seem the storm will ever end.
We didn't just lose a sister and a daughter, we lost a best friend.
It just doesn't seem to get better in the end.
I know there will be better days somewhere close to the end.

From your loving big brother and famliy. We will love you forever.
Hold on because one day we will all be together.



Katie Rebecca Gravesmill

We've wondered where our little girl has gone, she's still here but has grown into a beautiful talented young woman full of hopes and dreams. Allow your heart to see the beauty in life and you shall reflect that. We were truly blessed when God allowed us to borrow a ray of sunshine. We love you now ans forever.
Congratulations
